

I think that repealing data equality and reclassifying ISP's under Title 1 rather than 2 would make it harder to enforce net neutrality. As a concerned citizen I must ask the FCC to vote to keep strong net neutrality protections for a free and open internet. I think incidents such as what the public saw with the scandals of Comcast slowing internet speeds of netflix and T Mobile slowing google wallet would harm competition and harm the welfare of the general public.